Are you passionate about justice and holistic legal advocacy? Join Land of Lincoln Legal Aid and make a long-term impact!

Land of Lincoln Legal Aid seeks two staff attorneys to assist domestic violence survivors with orders of protection and family law cases, in Quincy, IL at its new satellite office. Land of Lincoln Legal Aid provides free civil legal services to low-income individuals in 65 counties in Illinois. We are committed to seeking justice for those whose voices might otherwise not be heard; to empower individuals to advocate for themselves; and to make positive changes in the communities we serve. Our attorneys provide holistic legal advocacy in partnership with community organizations, social service agencies, and faith-based groups.

The staff attorneys in this position will provide zealous representation for domestic violence survivors who seek orders of protection, divorce, or custody/parental responsibility orders. The positions are dedicated to promoting justice and safety for individuals and families affected by abusive situations. The attorneys will work with other attorneys, the courts, Quanada, Ascend Justice, and other community partners to promote community safety, perform outreach and education, and develop impact advocacy strategies.

Responsibilities include:

- All elements of litigation including client interviewing, investigation, discovery, pleadings, briefs, and representation at hearings at trial level and appellate levels if appropriate
- Actively participate in community outreach and education
- Building relationships with community partners
- Compliance with organizational rules, policies, and procedures
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications:

- Licensed to practice law in Illinois or has requisite credentials for reciprocity;
- Litigation experience (3-5 years + preferred); previous legal aid or family law experience a plus
- Strong commitment to social and racial justice
- Demonstrated ability to build relationships and work with people of diverse social, economic, and racial/ethnic backgrounds
- Attention to detail
- Excellent verbal, analytical, writing, and organization skills
- Ability to supervise law students, support staff, volunteers and/or projects
- Highly motivated and demonstrated ability to work independently as well as part of a team
- Computer proficiency required

Special Working Conditions and Demands:

- Applicants must have reliable transportation, valid driver's license, and car insurance
- Applicants must have reliable home internet capable of supporting video conferencing

Compensation:

$60,000–$85,000 with license and depending on experience. Excellent insurance and retirement benefits; excellent leave benefits. Land of Lincoln is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit and is an eligible employer for the public service loan forgiveness program.
